

Bridgeway Academy Long Break Social Story

Normally I go to school on weekdays.

A calendar grid with 7 columns and 6 rows. The columns are labeled with the days of the week: SU, M, TU, W, TH, F, S. The rows contain numbers 1 through 31. The cells for Monday through Friday are highlighted in yellow, while the cells for Sunday and Saturday are white. The grid is shown as a page from a calendar, with a black border and a slight shadow on the left side.

SU	M	TU	W	TH	F	S
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
26	27	28	29	30	31

Right now, there are many people getting sick with something called the coronavirus.

COVID-19

The people that care about me want me to stay healthy and safe. The governor made a decision to have an extra long spring break to help keep people healthy and stop the coronavirus from spreading.

This means that I will not have school for 3 weeks. I will not go to school from March 17th until April 3rd.

March 2020
Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31	1	2	3	4

This is a change in my routine. I might miss my teachers, therapists, and friends during this long break.

This change might make me nervous, angry, sad, happy, or excited. It is okay to feel any of these emotions!

If I am feeling nervous, angry, or sad, I can talk to an adult about this.

If I am missing my teachers, therapists or friends,
I can send them messages on Dojo or email.

When I am at home, I will have some work to complete. My teachers will send home homework and I may even have videos to watch! This will help me keep learning, even on break!

This is a big change that makes a lot of people nervous. It is okay to feel nervous! After the long break, I will be back at Bridgeway Academy with my teachers, therapists, and friends!
